

Comparative Religion Project 7th Grade

In today's diverse North American society we often are invited through family, friends to religious ceremonies or services that are not of our own tradition or faith. Entering this unfamiliar atmosphere can be awkward.

Choose a religion and have it approved by Mrs. Phelps.

Write a story explaining what it would be like to celebrate a special holiday in your chosen religion. What would the church service be like? How would you dress for church? Who would preside at the service? What prayers might be said? Who would celebrate with you and your family? When you go home would the celebration continue?

Remember that this is a story; it should be written as though you are the person talking about what it is like to go to your church and participate in the special celebration.

Your story should be typed, New Times Roman 12, double spaced. It can be between 1 and 2 pages in length.

This project is due on 30th.
